

Today

Do Exercise 11. I will hang out.

“Controlling for”

- When you “control for” previous grades, you can simply just “add it to the model” by including it with midterm grade -- that is, just have both original variables put into your linear regression model. Easy easy. No need to extract residuals in this exercise (though, what you are doing is the same kind of statistical control...)?